

POLITICAL SCIENCE DEPARTMENT
INVITES YOU TO THE SCREENING AND MOVIE REVIEW COMPETITION OF

ARDH SATYA

DATE: 1ST November, FRIDAY, 2019

TIME: 11:00 AM

VENUE: Conference room, Department of Political Science

Ardh Satya is 1983 cop film directed by Govind Nihalani, written by Vijay Tendulkar. and starring Om Puri, Smita Patil, Amrish Puri, Naseeruddin Shah and others. It is the story of an upright policeman battling a corrupt system. It delves into the political and psychological struggles of a man caught between his own frailties and cynicism around him. Set in turbulent times of Mumbai, the film examines the police culture with a critical eye. It brings out the limits and loopholes of law enforcing system. Ardh Satya is considered as a landmark in the history of Indian film industry which went on to win various Filmfare awards, National Filmfare Award for Best Actor and Best Actor at Karlovy Vary International Film Festival in 1983.